Eighty Enjoy Fidac Program At Legion Hall

White iris closely resembling the fleur de lis, flower of France, and poppies served to decorate the American Legion hall for the annual Fidac dinner program given by Bert S. Crossland Unit American Legion Auxiliary 170 Tuesday evening.

A French menu was served to 80 by members of the Auxiliary who were attractively dressed in peasant frocks of bright colored material and wore red roses in their hair.

The program presented later in the evening included vocal numbers by Miss Margaret Kibbe and Mrs. Bee Shawyer. Mme Teala Billini graciously consented to accompany the singers and obliged with several requests for songs among which was the "Little French Waltz."

A program by Olvera Street Puppets and a talk by Mrs. Mable Patton of Los Angeles explaining Fidac completed the program for which credit is due Eloda Barkkull, Fidac chairman, Maxine Smith and Dorothy Jamison.

Honored guests at the meeting were Maud Newstead, 19th District American Legion, winners in the high school essay contest, their teacher and judges for the contest.

P. T. A. COUNCIL MEETING THURSDAY

Fern Avenue Parent Teachers Association with Walteria served as hostess group at the meeting of Lomita-San Pedro Council of Parents and Teachers at their regular meeting in Fern Avenue school Thursday.

Reports by council chairman and local organization presidents were then given. Newly elected presidents were introduced.

To raise money to send the under-privileged children to an accredited camp the council voted to sponsor a program of dance fantasies by pupils of Ruth Sphre Theatrical Art Studio in the Richard Henry Dana Junior high school at San Pedro June 17 at 8:15 p. m.

At the close of the meeting luncheon was served by ladies of Fern Avenue and Walteria schools. Mrs. Howard B. Moore as chairman was assisted by Mrs. Wm. Jolley, Irene Davis, E. L. Hatter, C. W. Stevens, L. W. Andrews, Lenore Young, W. J. Goulic and Elsie Minor.

WOMAN'S CLUB PARTY SOCIAL SUCCESS

One of the nicest affairs of the season was the hostess bridge party sponsored by Torrance Woman's club under the able direction of Mrs. Charles Schultze last Saturday evening and attended by 150 persons.

Bridge groups ranging from three to five tables gathered at the home of Messrs. and Mrs. W. H. Gilbert, M. J. Beale, Byron Scott, Dean L. Sears, Wm. Bush, Willis Brooks, Ray Rogers, H. C. Barrington, Grover C. Whyte, W. J. Neelands, John Cooper, Boyd Thompson and G. J. Peckham.

After bridge play all gathered at the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue, where refreshments were served. Mrs. Marie Quigley assisted by her committee took charge of serving, while Mrs. Emma Evans and her committee took charge of the kitchen.

Table arrangements were by Harriett Leech and Gertrude Balfour. Prizes were secured by Mrs. Ruth Rippey. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. F. C. Winkler, Mrs. John Hooper, Mrs. George Beedleson, Mrs. Odelle Morman, Messrs. Ray Rogers, Sam Levy, Wm. E. Ruppel and Vincent Vichienave.

The affair proved a financial success and should stimulate new officers of the club, who will be seated at the meeting to be held in the clubhouse Wednesday, June 1.

Students Give Entertainment; Baby Show for Old Grads

Last Friday marked one of the greatest days in the history of Torrance high school. It was the annual homecoming for alumni and more than 200 visited the school, renewed old acquaintances and met old and new members of the school faculty. Classes as far back as 1922 were represented.

The homecoming was only part of the celebration, being held in conjunction with the school carnival to which young and old flocked with the enthusiasm of youth. It is estimated that some 700 witnessed the coronation ceremony in which Georgina Tiffany, charming 16-year-old brunette and a member of B12 class, was crowned queen, with Lee Kirkpatrick as king.

Townpeople showed added interest in the school carnival. Never before had there been such fine adult attendance. All kinds of concessions, food booths, freak and variety shows, fortune telling and dancing attractions were well patronized.

A baby show staged during the afternoon proved most entertaining. Thirty-four children of old grads were entered in the show. Mrs. Helen Bunge and Mrs. Vivian Grant were in charge of the affair with Judge Robert Lessing as master of ceremonies.

Children in the show included: JoAnne, 2 years, (Fred J. Weber, father, Dorothy Granling, mother); Judith Lee, 2 years 6 months, (Jay Adams, father, Mildred Cowan, mother); Robert, Jr., 7 months, and Carol Anne, 2 years, (Robert E. Lee, father, Eleanor Austin, mother); Arline, 3 years, (Max Smarte, father, Marion Micheau, mother); Teddy, 6 years, and Patsy, 5 years, (Harold Romine, father, Frances Haynes, mother); Charlene Ann, 7 months, (Leon Altvorst, father, Catherine Casbaker, mother).

GLADYS MOE BETROTHED TO WILLIAM EDGECOMB

Scrolls attached to place cards at a dinner party recently given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Condo, 1827 Gramercy avenue, served to announce the betrothal of Gladys Mae Moe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moe of this city to William Edgcomb, Jr., of Long Beach. The wedding will take place Saturday, May 28.

Guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Condo and I. F. Berg of Imperial Valley, Miss Gladys Moe, William Edgcomb, Jr., and the host and hostess.

Miss Moe has for the past two years been employed in the offices of the Bachman Petroleum company in Long Beach. Mr. Edgcomb is superintendent of the Midway Oil company.

EARLY JUNE BRIDE FETTER AT SHOWER

Miss Jean Kresse, who will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Olive Belle Huber to John Schroeder in early June, entertained for Miss Huber at a miscellaneous shower in the Kresse home, 1443 El Prado, Wednesday evening.

Invited to the affair were the following: Mmes. Ethel Derouin, Mary Ann Bradford, C. M. Johnson, E. M. Johnston, Tom Hyde, Fred Knudsen, R. A. Huber, Frank Steinhaber, O. A. Kresse, Misses Jane Johnston, Marge Huber, Betty Elliot, Vivian Knudsen, Shirley Johnson, Olive Belle Huber, and Jean Kresse.

Pre-Nuptial Shower for Frances Granger Given by Friends

One of the week's loveliest social affairs was the pre-nuptial shower given by Mmes. Hollis Wood (Blanche Cummings) and Allen Crews (Evangeline Cummings) at the home of Mrs. E. P. Haley in Palos Verdes Estates last Saturday as a courtesy to Miss Frances Granger, fiancée of John Young, cousin of the hostesses.

Entertainment included the making of a history of the bride and groom and a cleverly planned musical game, arranged by Mrs. Walter Claus with Marjorie Eischen at the piano. The tea table was beautifully decorated in white and crystal. Mrs. John Young, mother of the groom-to-be, and Mrs. Claus poured.

Invited were Mmes. Marjorie Eischen, Fred C. King, Jr., Walter Claus, Mable Boynton, McKenzie, C. B. Kyle, Harry Shaeffer, Albert Kohler, Charles Mitchell, Helen Berry, Sarah Murray, Leonard Babcock, Roy Denman, Misses Ethel Burnham, Elizabeth Parks, Cora Mabee, Ada Chase, Irene Mills, Sarah Vauhel, Muriel Bell, Virginia Brown of Torrance; Mmes. Rhoda Cummings and Robertson McGee of San Pedro; Mmes. Guy Mowry, Theodore Kelly, Elizabeth Wood, Misses Eva Jones, Marguerite Jones and Gertrude Mowry of Palos Verdes Estates; Mmes. Forest Young, Carrie Rogers, Theodore Smith, Margaret Van Loan, Misses E. Young, Hazel Young, Albertine Young and Alberta Young of Los Angeles.

BARLOW CABIN SCENE OF PARTY SUNDAY

A housewarming and pinocle party at the mountain cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Barlow at Wohlford Lake near Escondido furnished a delightful outing for members of the Jolly Jucker club last Sunday.

In the party were Mmes Archer Lewis, Esther Dennis, Sarah Murray, Anna McFarland, Fred Spegeer, John Miller, Eddie Barlow and Miss Eva McCormick.

After luncheon pinocle furnished diversion with prizes captured by Mmes. Lewis, Murray and Miller. The group presented Mrs. Barlow with a lovely gift.

WOMEN OF MOOSE ACTIVE SOCIALLY

Members of the local Moose Lodge and Women of the Moose are engaged on an extensive social season—these days. Tomorrow night the women's unit is sponsoring a card party with a number of awards and a door prize offered at the Moose hall.

The monthly family frolic and dance will be held Saturday, May 28, at the hall on Cravens avenue and a dessert card party will be held at 12 o'clock noon at Mrs. Ruth Kidd's home in Gardena.

SON HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zamperini, 2028 Gramercy avenue, entertained at an Italian dinner party in their home Tuesday evening honoring their son Pete, on the occasion of his 23rd birthday.

The house was attractively decorated for the occasion which was an all stag affair. Covers were placed for Mr. Zamperini, Bob Lewellen, Ned Jensen, Clark Crane, Clarke Mallory, Joe McCabe, Gordon DeMott, Louis Zamperini and Pete.

Dinner was served by Mrs. Zamperini and her daughters Sylvia and Virginia.

During the dinner Pete announced that the event should serve a double purpose and suggested a toast to his parents, who on Wednesday observed their 24th wedding anniversary.

After the dinner contract bridge furnished diversion.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS HOSTS TO BAY DISTRICT

Torrance Camp Royal Neighbors entertained camps of the Bay District at their regular meeting in their hall, 1528 Cravens avenue, Tuesday evening.

Murielle Zabelle's Starlets of Stage and Screen from local classes appeared under the direction of their teacher. Their rendition of novelty tap dances were generously applauded. Darrell Conley gave several piano numbers. Readings were given by Mrs. Margaret Jones followed by community singing.
